Welcome to Visitors

Welcome to everyone joining us for worship today. Please make yourselves known to the ushers or pastor, and sign the visitor's register near the west entrance.

We offer a Play Area in back where you and your child can worship and play in a comfortable setting. However, please do not leave your child unattended, as that could lead to a disruption of everyone's worship experience.

Today we welcome Pastor Dean Natterstad to our pulpit for worship.

Update on the Election of the Bishop

Greetings, my brothers and sisters in Christ. Due to my upcoming journey with dialysis, I will not be able to be a voting member at the Synod Assembly in June, which is a disappointment for me. I just wanted to clarify that the voting members, who this year will be voting for our new Synod Bishop, are led by the Spirit through prayer and reflection while the balloting process takes place. Voting members take this very seriously. It is a very moving and meaningful process, which I found to be true when I voted for our current Bishop. I went with Robert to one of the forums with the 8 candidates and I can tell you this, it will be a joyous but difficult choice because all bring a lot to the table. Any of them would make a good Bishop. This is why the Spirit will lead the voting members as they cast their ballots.

You may share your thoughts about the candidates with Marie Byrd and my replacement. I'm sure they will take into consideration your comments. But remember that they will be Spirit led at the time of voting. We need to pray for them to remain open as the Spirit leads them. Information on the candidates is on the Greater Milwaukee Synod of the ELCA's website. I know a couple of the candidates through my Synod experiences.

As for me, I really am feeling fine at this time but will need the dialysis treatments later in the year. Your prayer support will continue to be a source of strength and comfort. You will be doing God's work with your prayers. Jesus walks with us as we move forward.

Love and peace to you all,
Mike Herold

A New Chapter

It is with mixed emotions that I announce that I have taken a new position at Living Hope Presbyterian Church as Administrative Assistant and have given notice at Capitol Drive. My last day will be May 5. I will still be connected through our EPiC partnerships, and wish you all Godspeed, peace and blessings on your journey of faith in this neighborhood.—Lisa Quinn

Prayers of the People

Look to your church with grace and guide the minds of those who shall choose a pastor for this congregation, that we may receive a faithful servant who will care for your people and equip us for our ministries. Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.

Pentecost (Ancient Greek: Πεντηκοστή [ἡμέρα], Pentēkostē [hēmera], "the fiftieth [day]") is the Greek name for Shavuot (Hebrew: שבועות, lit. "Weeks"), the Feast of Weeks, a prominent feast in the calendar of ancient Israel celebrating the giving of the Law to Moses at Sinai. In Christianity, Pentecost is celebrated fifty days after Easter unday, inclusively (i.e., 49 days with the first day counted, seven weeks), hence its name.^{[1][2]} In Judaism, Shavuot is on the sixth day of the Hebrew month of Sivan (late May or early June). Pentecost falls on the tenth day after Ascension Thursday (which itself is 40 days after Easter).

Prayer for the week:

Come O Advocate. Come Holy Spirit. Come set us up residence in our lives. Keep us closely connected to the teachings of Jesus. Hold us steadfast in faith. Give us peace; take away our fears. In Christ we pray. Amen.

Did You Know??

The feast is also called White Sunday, or "Whitsunday", especially in the United Kingdom, where traditionally the next day, Whit Monday, was also a public holiday. In Eastern Christianity, Pentecost can also refer to the entire fifty days between Easter and Pentecost, hence the book containing the liturgical texts for Paschaltide is called the Pentecostarion.

In the New Testament, Pentecost was the occasion of the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and other followers of Jesus Christ, as described in the Acts of the Apostles 2:1–31. and therefore in the Christian liturgical year, it became a feast commemorating this occasion. For this reason, Pentecost is described by some Christians as the "Birthday of the Church".^[3] The Pentecostal movement of Christianity derives its name from this New Testament event, as the movement emphasizes direct personal experience with God, akin to the Descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles.

Pastoral Care in the Interim

In the interim, general pastoral care for the congregation will be managed by Mike Herold. He'll coordinate regular visits to shut-ins, communion visits, and other visits as needed. Should the need for a pastor arise, he will contact one of a series of pastors on call for emergency pastoral care. If you need a pastoral visit, or would like to be one of the Visitors, please contact Mike at 414-460-5622.
